

Romantic Vegan Valentines Weekend in Britain's most unusual inn situated on the edge of magical Dartmoor.

The weekend includes TWO nights in a romantic four poster bedroom with ensuite or private facilities on Friday the 11th AND Saturday the 12th of February.

Prices are per couple and include BOTH NIGHTS and all meals mentioned below.

The offer is: after arrival on Friday evening, vegan fish chips and mushy peas and mayo will be served, or if this is not to your taste, a meal from our standard vegan menu will be offered instead.

Saturday and Sunday morning breakfast is one of your choice, which can include scrambled tofu with veggie bacon and tomatoes, or homemade muesli with fruit and yogurt, or maple porridge and banana with toast etc, with a choice of tea or coffee.

After breakfast on Saturday there is ample opportunity to relax or explore this area of the North Moor before returning for your evening meal. The Highwayman is only 15 minutes away from the quaint Duchy town of Tavistock which has delightful shops and tea rooms.

On Saturday evening guests will have an intimate Valentine's Day meal in the Rita Jones' Locker bar which has been created in the style of an old pirate galleon. This atmospheric room will be used exclusively for the weekend's vegan guests.
